FARMERS MUTUAL TELEPHONE CO.

First Annual Meeting Proves to be a Great Success.—Banquet Follows.

On Monday night of last week the Campbell Farmers Mutual Telephone Co. held its first annual meeting, and if the enthusiasm manifest at the first annual gathering is an index of the future events, well there'll be something doing along telephone lines hereabouts. When orchardists get a notion in their heads that they can run a thing successfully, they come pretty near doing it. So it appears in this case. And the "big men" of the Sunset Company had just as well prepare to see their business confined to the town proper.

C. J. RINGE

On account of earthquake and the harvesting of the summer crops no special progress was made by the new company until the past few months, when poles were placed and wire strung for three lines or "loops", one tapping the San Tomas district, the other two reaching out into the Moreland and Hamilton districts. Arrangements are being made for two new lines, running into the Cambrian and Meridian districts.

At present there are nine miles of lines run, at a total cost to the company for material and labor of $753.32. And with the rental of 32 phones from Sunset Co. for the coming year, rent of four loops, and incidentals, the company has spent $1071.82.

There are at present 36 shareholders, the shares being worth $25 each. The members have been called on for $21 each. Thirty-two phones have been installed to date. The company's lines are connected with the Sunset Company's lines on the outskirts of the town, an arrangement having been made with the latter company to furnish the "central."

The annual meeting of the shareholders was held at the Public Library and at the meeting the following members were elected directors for the coming year: C. J. Ringe, A. C. Keesling, J. E. Wiesendanger, J. J. Cornell, B. O. Curry, F. M. Righter, H. L. Wallace.

A sumptuous banquet followed, long tables having been spread in the Coffee Club room, under the direction of J. E. Wiesendanger, most ably assisted by Mrs. Wiesendanger, Mrs. Keesling, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Clendenning, and others.

At about 9:30 o'clock practically the entire membership filed into the room and with their families, sweet hearts and invited guests were soon seated around

Brighten Up

"Brighten Up" time is here—the time to clean up about the house, renovate, and make the old things look neat and clean again. We can help you in the work with our line of

SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINTS AND VARNISHES.

It is really surprising what a little paint or varnish will do toward brightening up dingy surroundings. Take The S-W. Family Paint, for instance. This is a linseed oil paint specially prepared for home decorating and painting. With it any one can renew the appearance of a hundred little things that now look worn and old. It dries with a good gloss and will stand scrubbing with soap and water. Comes in 26 attractive shades.

The S-W. Floorlac is another splendid household brightener. It is a stain and varnish combined and can be used on old or new woods equally well. Imitates the natural woods and gives a most pleasing effect.

These offer a few hints for you. Come in and have a "Brighten Up" talk with us and learn more about how we can help you in your Fall cleaning. Our line has a paint or varnish for every purpose.

the festal board, doing full justice to the abundance of good things which the ladies had provided. During the time of eating an orchestra composed of Campbell young men furnished delightful music.

Mr. Righter was chosen toastmaster and he first called upon President Ralph Husted of the Saratoga Farmers Mutual Telephone Co. Mr. Husted congratulated the new company on its splendid growth and predicted a rapid growth, illustrating it by stating that no hall in Saratoga was large enough to banquet their members at the fourth anniversary recently held.

I. N. Leonard of Downing Lane is an ardent believer in co-operation. He has always been. He put in a good word for the Farmers Insurance Co. and the Rochdale stores.

Mrs. Frank Savage read a poem, entitled "Woman's Way."

Rev. A. H. Needham put his listeners in good humor by a talk filled with sarcasm, as well as good thoughts.

President Ringe couldn't be prevailed upon to make a speech but gracefully got out of it by telling a Missouri story (he's from Missouri) and thanking Supervisors Mitchell and Roll for their kindness to the company in the matter of privileges granted.

Mrs. S. G. Nelson closed the speechmaking, with words of encouragement.

A rising vote of thanks was given to C. J. Ringe, the president and manager, for his untiring efforts in behalf of the company.

THE DAY CAMPBELL CELEBRATES.

A Splendid Program Prepared for Today's Annual Event.

Today, Frlday, February 22nd, will be Old Settlers' Day at Campbell, and it will be the fourteenth annual celebration here. On former occasions there have been large numbers present and the committees are anticipating that this year will prove no exception.

As has been the custom heretofore an all-day celebration is planned, and the spacious J. C. Ainsley cannery has been secured for the event.

There will be a mid-day basket dinner spread on long tables in the cannery, the committee furnishing tea, coffee, sugar and cream—the guests to furnish the remainder. This feature heretofore has been one of the enjoyable parts of the day's pleasure. The public generally is given a cordial invitation to be present and enjoy the hospitality of the Campbell people.

The program begins at 10:30 o'clock. C. H. Whitman will be chairman of the day. In the morning there will be a few short addresses, besides the address by the main speaker, Professor Cathcart, of the law department of Stanford. 'Reminiscences" has been the subject assigned to Dr. C. N. Cooper; 'Needs of Our Town" will be dealt with by Rev. A. H. Needham, D. D. The Public Library will be treated by Professor E. Janes. There will be two numbers by the High School Ladies' Quartet, composed of the Misses Ethel and Madge Clendennin, Edith Copeland and Irene Pennell. These will be "You're a Grand Old Flag' 'and "Yammo."

After dinner a concert two hours' long by the Stanford Orchestra will be given. The superb concert given at the celebration last year by these musicians is an index of what may be expected this year.

The day's festivities will close with a grand concert in the evening at the Congregational Church, given by the Campbell Choral Society, assisted by the Los Gatos Choral Club and well known soloists of the county. This concert is under the leadership of Professor Milton L. Lawrence, and is the result of several months' practice by the singers of Campbell and Los Gatos.

The following committees have charge:

Speaker—F. M. Righter.

Finance—J. G. Relfe, R. K. Thomas, Dr. P. C. Hartman.

Program—J. F. Duncan, Mrs. P. C. Hartman, R. R. Rucker.

DENATURED ALCOHOL.

It Will Hardly Prove Profitable to Manufacture It on the Farm.

Now that the denatured alcohol bill has become a law and will take effect Jan. 1, 1907, the question will doubtless be raised among farmers if it will be possible for them to manufacture alcohol from their various farm products in individual distilleries upon the farm. They have been led to suppose, and rightly, that denatured alcohol can be manufactured from many farm products, and therefore it will create a new market for their products.

Professor H. W. Wiley, chemist of the department of agriculture, says that it will hardly prove profitable to undertake to manufacture alcohol in a small way upon the farm. No difference how small the quantity of alcohol may be, it cannot be manufactured except under the supervision of a revenue official, and the manufacturer must pay the salary and expenses of this official; at least it is likely that he will be required to do so under the regulations. Thus in the future the manufacture of alcohol, as at the present, will probably be conducted in large establishments. The principle involved is exactly the same as that employed in the manufacture of beet sugar, which, it is found, is impracticable in a small way. Central factories are necessary for the success of the sugar industry, and central distilleries will be necessary in the alcohol industry.

We are inclined to believe that this advice is timely and important, for the successful manufacturer of alcohol requires a thorough knowledge of the chemistry of the process and a high degree of technical skill, and no doubt Professor Wiley is correct in saying that the successful practice of the future will consist of the establishment of a central distillery in a good locality accessible to farmers. In these distilleries alcohol can be most economically made from the raw materials which the farmers furnish.

Secretary Wilson looks with much encouragement upon the benefits which the farmers are likely to reap from the sale of products to these distilleries. Some of the figures which he gives as his estimate on the producing power of certain crops are quite beyond one's comprehension. Figuring the corn crop on the basis of fifty bushels of corn to the acre, he says there would be approximately ten tons of stalks to the acre. Corn which if utilized when sufficiently ripe would yield 2,400 pounds of fermentable matter would produce 170 gallons of commercial alcohol. While fifty bushels is more than the average yield per acre at the present time, yet this yield could be largely increased in the west on the heavier corn lands, and when the vast acreage of corn in the United States is considered—and it is approximately 100,000,000 acres—it can readily be seen that the amount of commercial alcohol produced from the average of ten tons of stalks per acre would be quite incomprehensible.

Potatoes also would yield a very large product and the potato crop would be vastly larger than at the present time, from the fact that potatoes for alcohol need not be of the best quality or finest flavor; in fact, many thousand bushels that now virtually go to waste could be utilized, and yet he says, from the present acreage the average yield of potatoes should give 255 gallons of commercial alcohol per acre, and he believes the amount would be doubled by the planting of more productive varieties without taking into consideration their quality.

GRAND CONCERT TO-NIGHT.

Concert That Deserves a Large Audience. Don't Fail to Attend.

The concert to be given by the Choral Society next Friday evening, will, doubtless, be the finest of the kind ever given here. The Los Gatos society is to assist the home choral making a chorus of 60 or 70 voices. The soloists who are to assist are of well-known ability and need no special comment from us. They are: Mrs. Hartman, soprano; Mrs. Luther, contralto; Mr. Chester Herold, tenor; Prof. Lawrence, baritone. No attempt is being made to make money on the concert and the nominal charge of 25 cents is merely to cover the expenses incurred by the society in producing the entertainment. Following is the program:

Chorus, "Oh My Love's Like the Red, Red Rose"; tenor solo, "An African Love Song", Mr. Chester Herold; chorus, "Lullaby of Life"; soprano solo, "Midsummer Dreams", Mrs. Mildreth Spencer-Hartman; chorus, "The Heavens Are Telling"; baritone solo, a. "Melisande", b, "The Pretty Creature", Mr. M. H. Lawrence; chorus, "Damascus Triumphal March"; soprano solo and chorus, "O for the Wings of a Dove", soloist, Miss Mabel Penny; a sacred cantata, "Faith and Promise," for four solo voices and chorus. Mrs. E. C. Merrill will be the accompanist.

Mrs. Vercler Passes Away.

VERCLER—In Campbell, Feb. 12, 1907, Mrs. Anna Vercler, mother of Mrs. S. L. Hayes and Andrew Vercler, of Salem, Oregon, a native of France, aged 76 years, 2 months.

The funeral was held Wednesday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Hayes, the Rev. A. H. Needham officiating. Music was effectively rendered by Mrs. J. D. Blaine, Mrs. M. E. Luther, Miss Cora Rodeck, and M. Boulware.

Mrs. Hayes accompanied the body to Oregon, where it will be buried in the family plot.

PRESS NOTES

The seventh and eighth grades of the Grammar School joined with the Dodona in celebrating the birthdays of Washington and Lincoln at the High School assembly hall Friday afternoon. The program was as follows: Quotations from Lincoln and Washington; music, school orchestra; duet, Ethel and Madge Clendennin; address, D. H. Coates; vocal solo, Gerna McCarty; lecture, Byrona Bennett; piano duet, Esther Smith and Anna Hagelin; recitation, Hazel Abbott; cornet solo, Russell Downing; addresses, Rev. George Atkinson and Rev. A. H. Needham; vocal solo, Dolly Blenkensop. The lower grades of the Grammar School had an interesting program of a patriotic nature Friday afternoon.

The Campbell Choral Society went to Los Gatos to rehearse with the Los Gatos Society for the concerts to be given jointly by the two societies on the 22d in Campbell and the 23d in Los Gatos. Monday evening both chorals will visit the San Jose Choral for the final rehearsal.
